

“We Believe, We Practice, God is...” - Hutt Hutson

Perspective is a powerful thing. We all see things differently and the way we see things often determines how we respond and react. In the same way, how we see God, determines much of what we do and how we respond to His Word. Our perspective of God can, and SHOULD, shape EVERYTHING we see and do.

God is Creator (Genesis 1:1)

- World-view #1 - We are only _____ to _____, free to do whatever we think is best.
- World-view #2 - There is no _____ because there is no _____.
- World-view #3 - We are accountable to _____ and to _____.
- Believing in a Creator only influences our actions if we believe we are _____ to Him.

God is Father (Galatians 3:26-4:7)

What do we do as children of Father God? (1 John 3:1-10)

- _____ yourselves
- Do not keep on _____
- Do what is _____
- Be _____ of God
- _____ your brother and sister

God is Love (1 John 4:7-12)

- We believe God is _____ and so we _____.
- If God is so loving, then how could all of these _____ happen?
- There is no love without _____.

God is Just (Luke 4:14-20, Micah 6:8)

- How do we “_____”?
- Christians should pursue both _____ and _____ freedom for the oppressed, so others can also become what _____ has _____ them to be.
- The goal of biblical justice is to see lives _____ to God and _____ transformed.
